

USEFUL CAREERS WEBSITES

General Information

www.nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk – this is the Government’s careers service offering information on careers options, CV writing, courses, training schemes and more.

www.successschool.org – gives clear and comprehensive information about a range of Career Zones in an easy to access format.

www.how2become.com – offers detailed advice on how to access a rang of sectors.

www.app.startprofile.com- investigate careers watch videos and get great advice.

www.careersbox.co.uk – video-based job profile information and skills explorer tool.

www.mycareerspringboard.org – for students, it is divided into two main sections the Career Test and the career Exploration Tool.

www.icould.com – useful website which includes a careers quiz to help discover what jobs may suit you.

www.thestudentroom.com – Careers advice for GCSE, A Level and Uni. Personal statement builder and other free tools.

www.takeoff.gatwickdiamondjobs.com – local jobs website. CV and interview skills, local jobs and apprenticeships.

www.allaboutschoolleavers.co.uk – website with jobs and careers information dedicated to educating young people about school leaver programmes, apprenticeships and other genuine alternatives to university.

www.notgoingtouni.co.uk – opportunities that exist outside of university.

www.sussex-learning-network.careerexplorer.co.uk – Online toolkit to help students explore career options, industry and pathways

Apprenticeships

www.apprenticeships-in-sussex.com – register on this website to be notified of local apprenticeship vacancies www.apprenticeships.gov.uk – official government website where all apprenticeship vacancies should be listed. Register for email alerts.

www.allaboutapprenticeships.co.uk – students can search for opportunities by location, industry and apprenticeship level.

www.careermap.co.uk – a map of the local area highlighting apprenticeships available.

A Level subject choice, further and higher education www.russellgroup.ac.uk/informed-choices.aspx - a guide to A level subject choice. It includes advice on subject combinations for a wide range of university courses as well as advice on the best choices to keep your options open.

www.bestcourse4me.com - independent website which shows links between what you study at A Level, BTEC and degree level and what jobs you can get and what you can earn.

www.myfuturesussex.com – find out about local colleges and training providers.

www.ucas.com – info on all course offered by universities with entry requirements www.parentaladvisor.co.uk – info for parents on Higher Education including alternatives to university and student finance www.gov.uk/studentfinance - government info on funding and finance; eligibility for bursaries and loans and how to apply www.scholarship-search.org.uk- info on scholarships and industry sponsorships www.gov.uk/1619-bursary-fund/overview - info on possible financial support open to low income families www.prospects.ac.uk – info on careers you can access after doing a particular degree.

Apprenticeship Providers

www.rewardstraining.co.uk – local apprenticeships in business skills, IT, hospitality & catering and health & social care www.hittraining.co.uk – hospitality and catering www.sigta.co.uk – engineering and business admin www.stevewillis.com – providers of plumbing and electrical apprenticeships www.jace-training.co.uk – local apprenticeships in business admin, IT, childcare, hospitality and customer service www.theedf.com – local company who facilitate all types of engineering apprenticeships www.lookfantastic-training.com – hairdressing and customer service www.bhta.ltd.uk – apprenticeships in business administration, customer services, exercise and fitness, health and social care, IT, retail, sport and leisure